Cider is being sold in town at $4 a barrel, and potatoes are retailing at 50 cents per bushel or 45 cents on board the cars.

James E. Simpson of Wellsville was here Saturday and witnessed the foot-ball game. For a small town, he thinks we did well, The sheriffs of two counties have posted election notices here, and Mayor Stouffer has posted his proclamation closing the saloons on election day, Nov. 8. Zo. Vignon is again able to enjoy a little outdoor exercise, after a long confinement with typhoid fever, and is cultivating a luxuriant family beard. The Winrose children are also rapidly improving. On the ball question one of the boys has asked me to quote from Paul's letter to the Colossians, 11, 16: "Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of a holy day, or of the new moon, or of the Sabbath days."

The Bostons have only commenced to farm; Frank C. brought me a Jumbo turnip on Sunday that weighs 3 pounds, 12 ounces, and Jacob has a aunflower that measures 15 inches in diameter, and it is not yet quit growing. Frank has already dug hundreds of bushels of potatoes, and nearly as many more to dig.

The best football game of the sea son was played upon the local gridfron last Saturday afternoon, when day afternoon, November 4. Salem's best team played a 0 to 0 Mrs. Anna Dawes, residing game. During the entire game the Washingtonville team played upon Salem's end of the field, yet did not score. Near the close of the game a stranger interfered with the playing and a free-for-all slugging match ensued, but was soon quieted by the police taking the "understrable citigen" to the cosp. From the following item in the Salem News our team was led to suppose to that they would be eaten alive by the visitors: number of old pigskin pushers, for mer stars of the gridiron, have organized a football team and on Saturday afternoon they will journey to Wash ingtonville to buck up against the strong team of the "wet" village. The cals have put in some hard practice during the past two weeks are in first class shape to defeat the "Bingville-ites." A large crowd of rooters will accompany their team-mates.
